

Who Owns the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)?

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a corporation owned by the people at large, doing for the people, to the best of its ability, a big job in a highly specialized branch of essential industry.

Three years ago the ownership was spread over 4623 stockholders.

Today the ownership is spread over 19,478 stockholders, of whom 7,200 are employees.

It is the ambition of this Board to operate the Company in such a fair and square way that you, as stockholder or customer, shall have a distinct pride in the fact that there is such an institution as the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Columbia Woman Reveals Facts

"I was run down with rheumatism, had nervous breakdown with stiffness and swelling of the joints so bad I could not move without great pain," said Mrs. Fannie Thurman, residing at 106 W. Ash St., Columbia, Mo. "I read an advertisement for Prescription Number 40," she continued, "and decided to try it. After taking two bottles the stiffness and pains have left me and I feel as supple as a child. I am sending you this letter for publication as I think every sufferer should hear of the wonderful merits of Prescription Number 40."

Prescription Number 40 is recommended for blood troubles from any cause, chronic constipation, indigestion, stomach and liver troubles, eczema, skin troubles, etc. Acts on the liver removing waste matters from the system thus cleansing the blood of all impurities and doing away with the need of cathartic pills and tablets. CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I am sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. B 55

THE GOODY-GOODY MAN.

I do not mind the man who rides his hobbies,
I can abide the faddiest now and then,
I think the creatures found in hotel lobbies
Some day perhaps may change and grow to men;
I can put up with him who merely bores me
And be polite to pests of every kind,
But one there is who positively floors me,
The gentleman who's overly refined.

I do not mind the man with worn-out stories,
At least he wants to cheer me up a bit;
The boastful man who magnifies his glories
May some day see his foolishness and quit;
The grouchy man is hard to get along with,
But even him I would not wholly ban;
There's only one I am forever wrong with,
The ever-perfect goody-goody man.

The game of life is rough and men must play it,
To be a good man one has to stand the brunt,
A spade's a spade—why be afraid to say to it?
The meaning's clearer when the speech is blunt;
A man can be a man and act politely,
Can live with men and keep a polished mind,
All eyes at times must look on things unsightly,
And vigor dies that is too-much refined.

Edgar A. Guest.

IT IS NOT EASY

To apologize,
To begin over,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To admit error,
To face a sneer,
To be charitable,
To keep on trying,
To be considerate,
To avoid mistakes,
To endure success,
To keep out of the rut,
To think and then act,
To forgive and forget,
To make the best of little,
To subdue an unruly temper,
To maintain a high standard,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
To recognize the silver lining—
But it always pays.
